Brother Knights,

As a fraternity of Catholic gentlemen, there is nothing more important to us than the Holy Eucharist. It is spoken of frequently as “the source and summit of the Christian life” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1324). For this specific reason, our bishops in the United States launched a National Eucharist Revival, a three-year initiative, last June — and the Knights of Columbus is offering our full and whole-hearted support.

There are a number of ways our councils can support this effort — from the level of your parishes and personal adoration time all the way to the National Eucharistic Congress in 2024. Here now, I wish to share some valuable resources to help foster your participation in this important effort.

First, the Eucharistic Revival Executive Committee has developed a newsletter titled Heart of the Revival that provides excellent resources and updates about the revival. Simply click on this link and scroll down to the subscription sign-up to get regular updates.

Second, the Supreme Council has developed several resources that are not only inspirational but provide practical guides for implementing eucharistic processions.

- National Eucharistic Revival homepage: eucharisticrevival.org
- Knights of Columbus resources: kofc.org/eucharist

We are indeed “Knights of the Eucharist,” and if you have not already done so, I encourage all state and local councils to speak with your pastors and bishops to inquire how you may assist with the Eucharistic Revival in your parishes and dioceses.

May our Lord bless you and your family this Lenten season.

FAITH COMMUNITY FAMILY LIFE

APRIL 2023

SUPREME CHAPLAIN'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

While he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him. (Gospel for April 23, Lk 24:30-31)

On the road to Emmaus, Jesus had been walking and talking with the two disciples all along, but they did not recognize him until he broke bread with them. Do we recognize Jesus in our midst — in the Eucharist, in Scripture, among the poor and those in need, in the face of every person? Do we help others, particularly our friends and family, to do the same?

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month, remind yourself and others — particularly your family and those closest to you — that Christ is present by speaking about your faith in everyday conversation (perhaps simply by thanking God for some blessing he has bestowed). Second, I challenge you to participate in the Faith in Action Family Fully Alive program.

Questions for Reflection:

Do you sometimes lose sight of God or become distracted with other things? Are there times in your life when God's presence is easy to recognize? What are some specific things you can do to more regularly remember God?

The Hardness of God

Every once in a while, I come back to this. It's good perspective to keep me humble, centered, and appreciative of God, especially when I'm in pain like I have been recently. Some of you will recognize this, I have used it before, but I think it's worth hearing again. Fr. Carney sent this to me some years back: it's believed to have been authored by an unknown soldier during the Civil War. Here it is:

"I asked God for strength, that I might achieve; I was made weak that I might learn humbly to obey.

I asked for health that I might do great things; I was given sickness that I might do better things.

I asked for riches that I might be happy; I was given poverty that I might be wise.

I asked for power to have the praise of others; I was given weakness to feel the need for God.

I asked for all things that I might enjoy life; I was given life that I may enjoy all things.

I received nothing I asked for - but everything I hoped for.....

Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayer was answered: I am, among all people, most richly blessed."

This soldier was asking God for things that would benefit him, God answered with things that would benefit others. This soldiers' prayers were answered with God's lesson of humility.

It seems these days we're moving so fast we miss the things that are really important. We worry about the things that will take care of themselves, but don't worry about the things that really need our attention: we're jousting with the wrong windmills. We pray to God to help us, but in our arrogance in that same prayer, we tell Him how do to it. But now we find, what we ask God for, and what he answers with, are often two very different things. His answers lead us to give up our arrogance and seek humility, true, deep, humility. That humility requires deep reflection of our lives, it requires a complete and absolute dependence on God, and then it requires us to give up everything to God, only to find that God gives back in much greater measure.

In his book, “The Great Story of Israel,” Bishop Barron writes: “To be in right relation to God is to acknowledge one’s total dependence upon Him; to be in sin is to seek to stand somewhere apart from Him, to find some place where or some time when He is not. God’s presence is from the beginning, and He embraces the heavens and the earth. He cannot be avoided.”

C.S. Lewis writes in “Mere Christianity”, “The only things we can keep are the things we freely give to God. What we try to keep for ourselves is just what we are sure to lose”.

Yet, knowing God’s great love, we still struggle with giving complete control to Him. But we know we must because “He cannot be avoided”. What God asks of us is hard, and sometimes it seems God is too hard.

Again, I quote Lewis, who writes at the end of his own conversion story:

“The hardness of God is kinder than the softness of Man. His compulsion is my liberation.”

All of this speaks clearly to the season we are in right now, Lent. Father Leo last weekend implored us to give up something. I say, give up everything. Give up our arrogance, our hesitation, our fear of what we don’t know, our fear of getting the answer we don’t want, our fear of completing our own conversions.

And so, I say to you brothers, in pursuit of our own liberation:

Let us seek the hardness of God.

Family of the Month

Lord, make me an instrument of Your Peace:

Where there is
hatred, let me sow
love;

Where there is
injury, pardon;
Where there is
doubt, faith;

Where there is
despair, hope;
Where there is
darkness, light;
And where there is
sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek To be consoled as to
console;
To be understood, as
to understand;
To be loved, as to
love;

For it is in giving
that we receive, It is in pardoning that we
are pardoned,

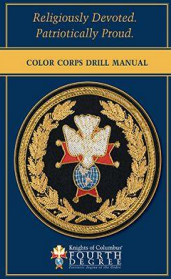

And it is in dying
that we are born to
Eternal Life. Amen

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women
who are victims of brutal violence,
of the elderly and the sick killed
by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son
may proclaim the Gospel of life
with honesty and love
to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace
to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude
throughout their lives
and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build,
together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel,
defend us in battle,
be our protection against
the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

The Chalice Program is a beautiful and lasting gesture to memorialize and pay tribute to a Sir Knight who has passed away. A Chalice and Paten with the name of the deceased Sir Knight engraved (on the Paten) are given to a Mission Church for use during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
