SUPREME CHAPLAIN'S MONTHLY CHALLENGE

“I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you.” (Gospel for May 14, Jn 14:18)

Jesus keeps his promises to us. He does not leave us orphans. He appeared to the disciples several times after he rose from the dead. He gave us the Eucharist, his real presence, to nourish us until the end of time. He said he would return at his Second Coming. And there's another way he did not leave us orphans: He gave us his own mother to be ours. Let us turn to the Blessed Mother often with our needs and prayers of intercession.

Challenge by Supreme Chaplain Archbishop William E. Lori:

This month: During this month of Mary, I challenge you to draw closer to Our Lady by offering one decade of the rosary each day for her motherly aid and help. Second, I challenge you to participate in the Faith in Action Rosary program in your parish.

Questions for Reflection:

Do you really think of Mary as your mother? How can you better seek out her help — as a mother — in all your needs and problems? Do you understand the power of the rosary and seek to honor your mother's request to pray it regularly?

From Worthy Lecturer SK Jimm White

There is a theme, (one of many), that runs all thru the Bible, that extends into the world, old and new, and that is experienced today in the Church. It is the idea of taking a pause, then opening back up, to extend Gods love into the world.

In Genesis we hear; “The Lord God then took man and settled him in the garden of Eden, to cultivate and care for it.” The casual reading of this phrase is that the man, Adam, would seem to simply be a gardener, a caretaker. However, the theology of this phrase is that God, telling Adam to “cultivate” the garden, is telling Adam to grow it, to expand Eden into the whole world.

And then we read: “The Lord God gave man this order; You are free to eat from any of the trees of the garden except the tree of knowledge of good and evil. From that tree you shall not eat; when you eat from it you shall die.” Again, the casual reading of this would be an admonition of what man cannot do. The theology of this is that God gave man the freedom to do whatever he wanted to grow Eden into the whole world, except that one thing. Of course, we know how that turned out. When they ate the fruit of that one tree, their special relationship with God died, and heaven was closed.

Everything from that point on, until the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus, was about trying to get that back.

In the books of the Torah, God is setting out the procedures and rituals trying to reconcile us with Him. He sets out the sacrifices, at times in great detail, that we see now as templates for the ultimate sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross. With that sacrifice Jesus accomplishes what all the sacrifices before him fell short of: to reconcile us with God, and heaven was open again. We participate in that sacrifice every time we attend Mass.

But along the way God occasionally took a pause. Not so He could re-think His approach to us, but to give us time to re-think our need for Him.

One of many examples: God told Noah to collect all the animals of the world, two by two, into one place, the Ark. Then God flooded the world. In a manner of speaking, God paused. When the flood was over, God told Noah to open the gates of the Ark and let all the animals back out into the world. That message is clear.

20 times in the history of the Church, she has taken a pause to deal with some immediate issue and/or to consider some deep theological question.

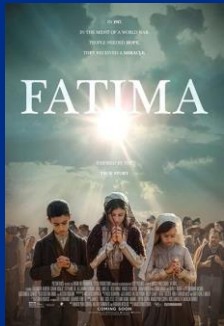

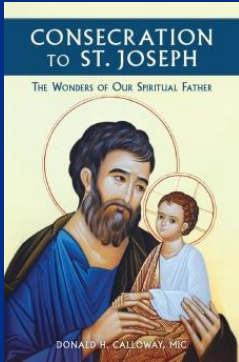

As with Vatican II, some of those questions were about letting the world in to change the Church, and so those questions dealt with the heretical pressures of those who wanted the Church to do just exactly that. Other questions were on issues of a deep theological nature. When all those questions were settled, Vatican II, like all the councils before it, opened the Church to evangelize those answers back out into the world.

Of course, the most recent pause was forced upon us by Covid. But for some of us, this pause gave us time to reconsider our relationship with God and the Church. It gave us time to look deeper into ourselves, and to appreciate how much we missed the Mass. If you're looking for something good that came out of Covid, that should be high on your list.

But, like all virus's before it, Covid has mutated into just another virus. Still deadly to those at risk, but in the same manner they are at risk to all the other virus's as well.

And so, it's time for us to open back out, and take the Church into the world once more.

My brothers, the pause is over.

Congratulations SK Julian and Lady Teresa Gonzales

Lord, make me an instrument of Your Peace:

Where there is hatred, let me sow
love;
Where there is
injury, pardon;
Where there is
doubt, faith;
Where there is
despair, hope;
Where there is
darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek To be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as
to understand;
To be loved, as to
love;

For it is in giving that we receive, It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

And it is in dying
that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen

Letter to Mommy and Daddy after Abortion

Mommy... why did you hurt me?
Daddy did you know?
Why didn't you fight for my life?

Jesus said I would have looked just like you Your hair, your eyes, and even your smile
I know you didn't mean it
Mommy

Daddy I know you love me.

Daddy, you will never get to see me

You'll miss my first words, you'll miss me fall and get up.

Mommy, you'll never get to comb my hair or paint
my nails, you'll miss me go to kindergarten

You guys will miss my whole life And I will
to....

But don't worry, I am with Jesus now.... Next time think about what you are doing, and who you are hurting,

I AM A PERSON

Mommy, Daddy, I love you, wish you would have loved me too

Celebrate the Gospel of Life

O Mary,
bright dawn of the new world,
Mother of the living,
to you do we entrust the cause of life:
Look down, O Mother,
upon the vast numbers
of babies not allowed to be born,
of the poor whose lives are made difficult,
of men and women who are victims of brutal violence, of the elderly and the sick killed by indifference or out of misguided mercy.
Grant that all who believe in your Son may proclaim the Gospel of life with honesty and love to the people of our time.
Obtain for them the grace to accept that Gospel
as a gift ever new,
the joy of celebrating it with gratitude throughout their lives and the courage to bear witness to it resolutely, in order to build, together with all people of good will,
the civilization of truth and love,
to the praise and glory of God,
the Creator and lover of life.

Prayer for the Canonization of Blessed Michael McGivney

Founder of the Knights of Columbus

God, our Father, protector of the poor and defender of the widow and orphan, you called your priest, Blessed Michael McGivney, to be an apostle of Christian family life and to lead the young to the generous service of their neighbor. Through the example of his life and virtue, may we follow your Son, Jesus Christ, more closely, fulfilling his commandment of charity and building up his Body which is the Church. Let the inspiration of your servant prompt us to greater confidence in your love so that we may continue his work of caring for the needy and the outcast. We humbly ask that you glorify Blessed Michael McGivney on earth according to the design of your holy will. Through his intercession, grant the favor I now present (here make your request). Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle,
be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host,
by the power of God,
cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

The Chalice Program is a beautiful and lasting gesture to memorialize and pay tribute to a Sir Knight who has passed away. A Chalice and Paten with the name of the deceased Sir Knight engraved (on the Paten) are given to a Mission Church for use during the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to our pledge, to extend the kingship of thy divine son on earth.

Through Thine intercession, win for us the grace, ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues that should characterize those especially dedicated to the service of the heavenly court. Make us always aware that as your Knights, we are constantly observed, our faith judged, and our Order appreciated.

Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion, of Thy Servants, the Knights of Columbus.
